

The do not call list here is working very well and does not require or need FCC intervention, especially weakening it. Please do not interfere with a good program!